Bruning Comments on Appointment of Thomas Stine to Workers' Compensation Court Judge

LINCOLN -- Attorney General Jon Bruning today released a statement regarding the appointment of Thomas E. Stine to serve as judge on the Workers' Compensation Court. Stine has served as the Attorney General's Office Civil Litigation Bureau Chief for six years.

"We congratulate Thomas Stine on his appointment to serve as a judge on the Nebraska Workers' Compensation Court," said Bruning. "Because of his diligent efforts on behalf of the State of Nebraska, millions of taxpayer dollars have been saved during his tenure as the Attorney General's Office Civil Litigation Bureau Chief. Although he will be missed, we commend Tom on his continued dedication to serve the people of this great state."

A member of the Nebraska Bar Association since 1989, Stine has practiced law in Nebraska for more than 20 years.
